INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

National Guard of the
Commonwealth of Puerto
Rico San Juan, Puerto Rico

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements – cash basis of the governmental activities, each major fund, and the aggregated remaining fund information arising from the cash transactions of the National Guard of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the PRNG) as of and for the year ended June 30, 2017, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the PRNG's basic financial statements as listed in the table of contents.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 1; this includes determining that the cash basis of accounting is acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in these circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the receipts and disbursements of the governmental activities, each major fund, and the aggregate remaining fund information of the PRNG for the year ended June 30, 2017, in conformity with the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

Basis of Accounting

As described in Note 1, the PRNG prepares its basic financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and cash disbursements, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Also, as described in Note 1, the financial statements of the PRNG are intended to present the cash receipts and cash disbursements of only that portion of the financial reporting entity of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico that is attributable to the transactions of the PRNG.

Required Supplementary Information

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require that the management's discussion and analysis and budgetary comparison information on pages 4 through 12 and 24 be presented to supplement the basic financial statements. Such information, although not a part of the basic financial statements, is required by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board, who considers it to be an essential part of financial reporting for placing the basic financial statements in an appropriate operational, economic, or historical context. We have applied certain limited procedures to the required supplementary information in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which consisted of inquiries of management about the methods of preparing the information and comparing the information for consistency with management's responses to our inquiries, the basic financial statements, and other knowledge we obtained during our audit of the basic financial statements. We do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on the information because the limited procedures do not provide us with sufficient evidence to express an opinion or provide any assurance.

Other Information

Our audit was performed for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements that collectively comprise the PRNG's basic financial statements. The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards on page 25 is presented for purposes of additional analysis as required by Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Costs Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the basic financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the statement of receipts and disbursements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the statement of receipts and disbursements or to the statement of receipts and disbursements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America.

In our opinion, the schedule of expenditures of federal awards is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated March 30, 2018, on our consideration of PRNG's internal control over financial reporting and our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering PRNG's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2017

INTRODUCTION

As management of the National Guard of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (PRNG), we offer to the readers of this annual financial report our discussion and analysis of the PRNG's financial performance during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2017. The following discussion and analysis has been designed to accomplish the following goals:

- Assist the reader in focusing on significant financial issues;
- Provide an overview of the PRNG's financial activity;
- Identify any material deviations from the financial plan (the approved budget), and;
- Identify individual fund issues or concerns.

Since the MD&A is designed to focus on the current year activities, resulting changes and currently known facts, please read it in conjunction with the PRNG's financial statements.

ORGANIZATION AND MISSION STATEMENT

The PRNG was created by Law No. 62 of June 23, 1969. The purpose of the PRNG is to protect lives and property, preserve the peace, public order and safety during emergency situations as a result of natural disasters and civil uproar, and serve as national security corps whenever Congress may declare a state of emergency situation when it becomes part of the U.S. Army.

The PRNG maintains 48 armories and is present in 30 communities. The Puerto Rico National Guard, like the National Guards in all 50 states, is a hybrid organization. National Guards are ordinarily under the control of state (or, in the case of Puerto Rico, Commonwealth) officials, but are organized pursuant to federal statute, and in war time or other emergencies, Guard units may be brought under federal control. The Puerto Rico Army National Guard and Reserve units support U.S. Army South's (USARSO) many multilateral exercises and programs. It is through this integration of our Active Army, National Guard, and Reserves that USARSO can maximize resources to carry out missions.

The PRNG is headed by an Adjutant General appointed by the Governor of Puerto Rico. Also, the PRNG has the following programs:

General Management and Administration: Coordinates General Assistant's Office, Military Personnel Division, Legal Services, Public Relations, and Human Resources offices. It directs and supervises military troops.

The purpose of the program is to direct, coordinate, and effectively supervise the operations and services offered by the Puerto Rico National Guard, at State and Federal level, with the U.S. Army Reserve. It maintains operations and services of the P.R. National Guard. Its objective is to correctly administer the appropriated resources and maintain the troops' efficiency rate by means of training in and outside of Puerto Rico.

Puerto Rico State Guard: Professional Officers of the Corps of Volunteers that offer security support and medical services. The Puerto Rico State Guard is commanded by a Brigadier General and is composed by four brigades established in the Metropolitan Area, Ponce, Mayagüez and Caguas.

The purpose of the program is to be activated and offer support to the P.R. National Guard on a moment's notice, when activated by the Governor of Puerto Rico and the President of the United States. Its goal is to provide representation of the Puerto Rico National Guard in civic activities, assist the National Guard in emergency cases, offering support and medical services to the community. In addition, they furnish administrative support to the different entities of the Agency.

Security and Preservation of Military Facilities: Provides security services to different military facilities throughout the Island, with the purpose of preserving law and order to protect lives and properties. It includes the operation and preservation of the National Guard's physical facilities. These tasks are accomplished with state resources and, in some cases, by means of agreements with the Federal National Guard Bureau.

The program's purpose is to uphold security in military installations as well as maintain their physical facilities. Its goal is to protect the military quarters and facilities of the National Guard of Puerto Rico.

Administration Auxiliary Services: Renders administrative services to the Administrative Services Division, including Finance, Budget and General Services; whether state and/or Federal appropriations.

The purpose of the program is to maximize assigned resources, prepare a monthly budget, control and maintain property inventory, develop the Mechanization Plan and provide necessary services required by the different military installations. Its goal is to manage the Agency's fiscal resources to ensure they comply with established laws. In addition, one of its objectives is to complete the Mechanization Plan so as to improve and update information systems.

• FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

- In the PRNG's Statement of Activities -- Governmental Activities, the actual cash disbursements exceeded actual cash receipts by $1,370,051, resulting in a decrease of $2,426,223 compared with prior fiscal year ($1,056,172).
- Cash receipts increased by $8,985,372 and cash disbursements increased by $11,411,595 when compared to prior year financial statements.
- In the Statement of Cash Receipts and Cash Disbursements - Governmental Funds - The General Fund (the primary operating fund) and Federal Fund reflected cash disbursement over cash receipts amounting $25,499 and $2,216,890, respectively. However, the Other Governmental Funds reflected $872,338 in cash receipts over cash disbursements.
- On budgetary basis, actual cash receipts and disbursements amounted to $9,558,588.

BASIC FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PRESENTATION

The approach used in the presentation of the financial statements of the PRNG is based on a government-wide view of such statements as well as a presentation of individual funds behavior during fiscal year 2016-2017. The combination of these two perspectives provide the user the opportunity to address significant questions concerning the content of said financial statements and provide the basis for a comparable analysis of future years performance.

See accompanying notes to the Combined Statement of Receipt and Disbursements.

YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2017

Overview of the Financial Statements

The PRNG's basic financial statements comprise three components: (1) management's discussion and analysis, (2) basic financial statements, and (3) required supplementary information.

- Basic Financial Statements -The PRNG uses the cash basis of accounting to account for all funds administered. Under this method, revenue received is recognized as cash when funds are transferred – in and expenditures are recognized when funds are disbursed or transferred – out. Therefore, the statements are not intended to present the PRNG's results of operations in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Statement of Activities is presented in the cash basis of accounting, which presents the cash receipts and cash disbursements of only that portion of the financial reporting entity of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico that is attributable to the transactions of the PRNG. The Financial Statements also includes notes to the Statement of Activities–Cash Basis section that explains some information in the financial statements and provides more detailed data.

The Combined Statement of Cash Receipts and Cash Disbursements for All Governmental Funds provides detailed information about the PRNG's most significant funds, not the PRNG as a whole.

Governmental funds are used to account for essentially the same functions reported as governmental activities in the Government - Wide Financial Statements.

Because the focus of governmental funds is narrower than that of the government-wide financial statements, it is useful to compare the information presented for governmental funds with similar information presented for governmental activities in the government-wide financial statements. By doing so, users of the basic financial statements may better understand the long-term impact of the PRNG's near term financial decisions.

See accompanying notes to the Combined Statement of Receipt and Disbursements.

Overview of the Financial Statements

- Notes to the Financial Statements – Provides integral information needed to explain the basis for the financial information reported on the Basic Financial Statements and more detailed data for its further analysis.
- Required Supplementary Information – Provides additional information to better understand the financial position of the PRNG and contains the Budgetary Comparison Schedule for the General Fund.

FINANCIAL ANALYSIS OF THE AGENCY AS A WHOLE

Statement of Activities

The PRNG's total cash receipts increased by $8,985,372, representing an increase of 26.77% compared to prior year's financial statements. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2017, 35.67% of PRNG's total cash receipts came from state-general fund assignments, while 64.33% resulted from federal grants. The PRNG's disbursements cover a range of services. The following table includes a comparative analysis for readers to have comparative information with the percentage of change in cash receipts and disbursements from prior year to current year.

Governmental Fund Financial Statements

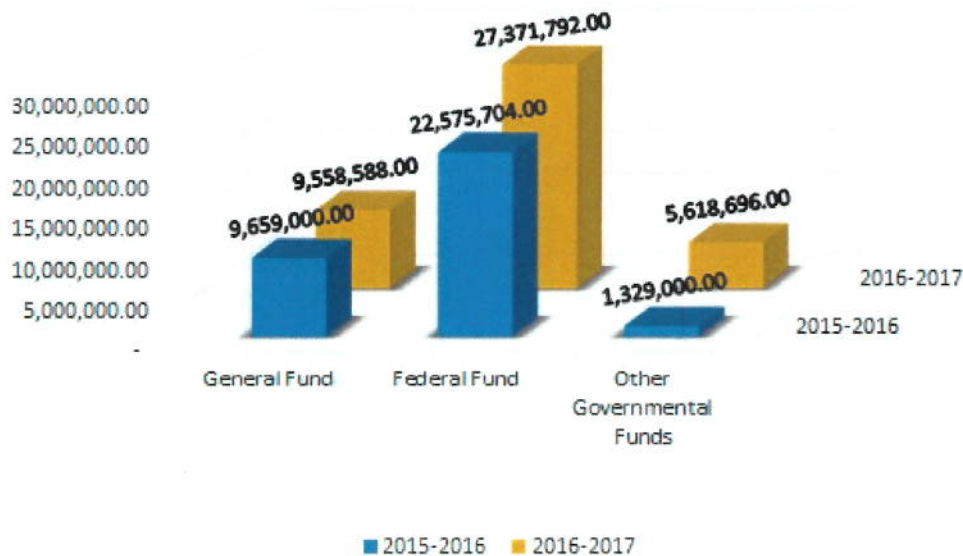

The governmental fund financial statements focus on major funds. The PRNG's major funds are the general fund (which accounts for the main operating activities of the PRNG), federal fund (which account for all grants received from federal programs) and other governmental funds (which account for other legislative resolutions, fees and charges for services and other income). The PRNG's Combined Statement of Cash Receipts and Cash Disbursements for fiscal year ended June 30, 2017, presented those three major funds.

The following figures provide information about how the governmental entity financed its activities and distributed the resources during the last two years.

CASH DISBURSEMENTS COMPARISON

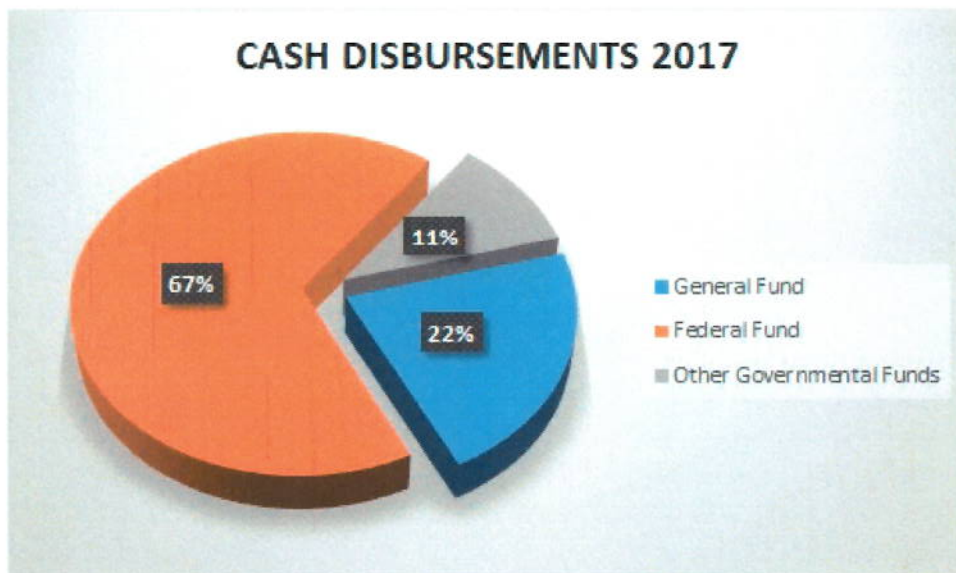

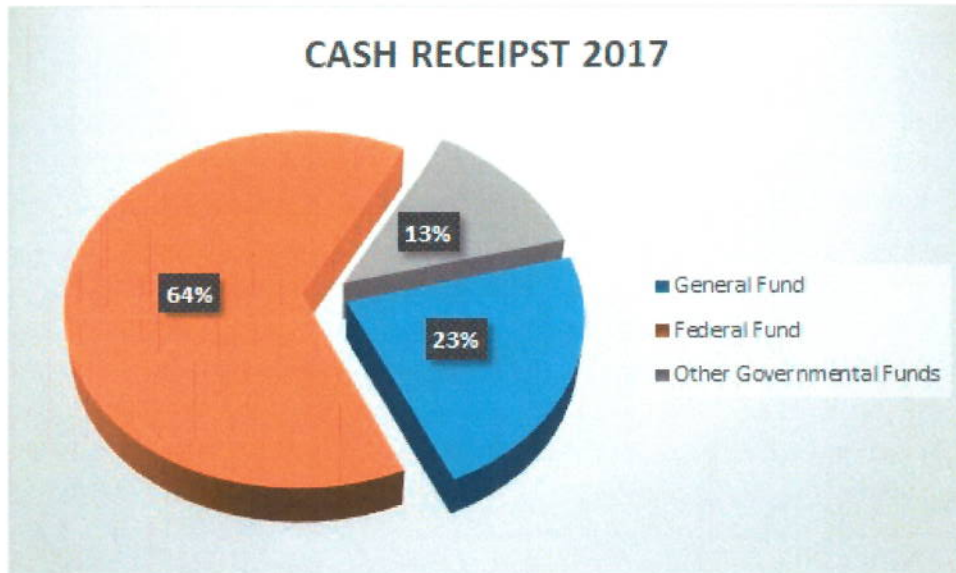

The following figures present how governmental activities of the PRNG's basic services were financed and distributed. These activities are primarily financed through state assignments, federal grants, charges for services and other revenues. The accounts of the PRNG are organized on three fund types: general fund, federal fund and other governmental funds. The PRNG maintains appropriations for various individual state and federal funds within each fund type. The state appropriations are presented as general fund and other governmental funds, which correspond to the funds accounted for the operations of the PRNG and appropriations granted for specific purposes, respectively. The measurement focus of the PRNG's governmental funds is to provide information on near-term inflows, outflows and balances of resources available for spending and determination of the excess (deficiency) of receipts over (under) cash disbursements, rather than upon net income determination. Such financial information is useful in assessing the PRNG's financing requirements.

GENERAL FUND BUDGETARY HIGHLIGHTS

A budget is prepared for the General Fund and represents legislative appropriations for the general operation of the PRNG. The procedures followed for approval and operations of the budget are defined by the laws of Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. The approved budget for fiscal year 2016-2017 amounted to $9,558,588. On a budgetary basis, actual cash receipts and disbursements amounted to $9,558,588.

ECONOMIC FACTORS

The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the Commonwealth) and its instrumentalities are currently facing a severe fiscal and liquidity crisis. This is the culmination of many years of significant governmental deficits, a prolonged economic recession (which commenced in 2006), high unemployment, population decline, and high levels of debt and pension obligations. Also, credit rating agencies have been downgrading their ratings on the Commonwealth debt obligations based on, among other problems, years of deficit financing, pension underfunding, budgetary imbalance, and as mentioned before, years of prolonged recession.

As more fully explained in Note 7 to the financial statements, the Governments of the United States of America and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico have approved and implemented certain laws to overcome this crisis. Following are some of the measurements implemented to this end:

- Puerto Rico Fiscal and Economic Growth Plan - On September 9, 2015, the Working Group for the Fiscal and Economic Recovery of Puerto Rico established by the Governor Alejandro Garcia Padilla by executive order EO 2015-022 submitted the Fiscal and Economic Growth Plan (FEGP), setting forth economic development, structural, fiscal and institutional reform measures intended to meaningfully reduce the Commonwealth's projected financing gaps.
- Puerto Rico Emergency Moratorium and Financial Rehabilitation Act - On April 6, 2016, the Legislature approved Act No. 21, known as the Puerto Rico Emergency Moratorium and Financial Rehabilitation Act (the Act). This Act empowers the Governor with narrowly tailored authority within the boundaries of the Commonwealth's laws and Constitution, to enable the Commonwealth and its instrumentalities to continue providing essential services to Puerto Rico's residents while addressing the critical need for structural and fiscal reform and debt.
- Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (PROMESA) - On June 30, 2016, the U.S. President signed the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (PROMESA), which grants the Commonwealth and its component units access to an orderly mechanism to restructure their debts in exchange for significant federal oversight over the Commonwealth's finances until the Commonwealth is able to attain a balanced budget for a number of years.

As of the date these financial statements were issued, the Commonwealth had recently filed an amended Fiscal Plan with PROMESA's Board. The Board, however, stated in a letter dated February 5, 2018 that certain revisions to the Fiscal Plan were required. The effects of this matter, if any, on the future operations of the PRNG is still uncertain.

FINANCIAL CONTACT

The PRNG's financial statements are designed to present the readers with a general overview of the cash receipts and cash disbursements of the PRNG. Questions or concerns regarding any information in this report or requests for additional information should be addressed to the National Guard of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, General Esteves St. #100, San Juan, P.R. 00901.

1. ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

The National Guard of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (PRNG) was created by the Law No. 28 of 1917, which was subsequently amended by Law No. 62 of June 23, 1969, as amended. The Law established the PRNG as the duly authorized governmental agency to protect the lives and properties of the Puerto Rico residents, to preserve the peace, the order and the public security in emergency situations caused by natural disasters or public riots. The PRNG maintains 48 armories and is present in 30 communities. The PRNG, like the National Guards in all 50 states of the United States of America, is a hybrid organization. National Guards are ordinarily under the control of the State (or, in the case of Puerto Rico, of the Commonwealth) officials, but are organized pursuant to federal statute, and in war time or other emergencies, guard units may be brought under Federal control. The Puerto Rico National Guard and Reserve units support the U.S. Army South's (South COM) many multilateral exercises and programs. It is through this integration of the U.S.A. Active Army, National Guard, and Reserves that South COM can maximize resources to carry out missions.

As part of its programs, the PRNG established the Youth Programs to provide a highly disciplined atmosphere fostering academics, leadership development, physical training, and personal growth to educate and train unemployed high school dropout youths and make them productive members of the community. The PRNG also supports communities using their specialized skills. Medical units provide preventive health care, education, and immunizations in low-income neighborhoods. Guard members serve drug and law enforcement agencies through its Counter Drug program, resulting in the confiscation of millions of dollars in illegal drugs. The PRNG conducts three National Guard Bureau sponsored youth programs: STARBASE, Creando and Challenge.

Financial Reporting Entity

The PRNG is for financial reporting purposes part of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, its financial data is included as part of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico's financial statements, and as such, the Department of the Treasury of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico serves as trustee of the funds assigned to the Department by the Legislative Branch and Federal Agencies. The Treasury Department also handles and records expenditures made with such funds and provides the PRNG with reports regarding such activities.

The financial information included in the accompanying Combined Statement of Cash Receipts and Cash Disbursements was obtained from the Puerto Rico Treasury Department's Integrated Financial Accounting System (PRIFAS) and is issued solely to comply with the Single Audit Act of 1984, P.L. 98-502, and the Single Audit Act Amendments of 1986, P.L.104-156 and for the information to the federal awarding agencies, pass-through entities, regulators, management and those charged with the governance.

1. ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Basis of Presentation

The accounts of the PRNG are organized on the basis of the three fund types: general fund, federal fund, and others governmental funds. The PRNG maintains appropriations for several individual state and federal funds within each fund type. Those state appropriations are presented as general fund and other governmental funds, which correspond to the funds accounted for the PRNG and appropriations granted for specific purposes, respectively. As more fully explained in the section "Basis of Accounting" below, each fund is accounted for with a set of accounts which include only receipts and disbursements. No balance sheet accounts are reported. The individual funds account for the governmental resources allocated to them for purposes of carrying on specific activities in accordance with laws, regulations and other restrictions. State funds are appropriated by the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and are funds through which most functions typically are financed. Federal funds reflect the federal financial assistance managed by the PRNG from programs funded by the Federal Government. The individual funds included in these fund types are classified accordance with their cost category.

The following governmental fund types are used by the PRNG:

General Fund - The general fund is the primary operating fund of the PRNG. It is used to account for all financial resources, except those required to be accounted for in another fund. The current financial resources accounted for in this fund consist of legislative appropriations approved by the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. The general fund is divided in the following programs:

Administration and Direction - This program is used to account for resources and expenditures related to the supervision and coordination of all services and operation of the National Guard of Puerto Rico.

Security and Conservation of Military Facilities - This program is used to account for resources and expenditures related to the security of military installations, as well as the operation and maintenance of their physical facilities. This program uses state resources and, in some cases, federal funds through service agreements with the Federal National Guard section.

State Guard - This program is used to account for resources and expenditures related to the security, protection, and health services of Puerto Rico, especially in those cases in which the Governor of Puerto Rico activates the State Guard.

Auxiliary Services of Administration - This program is used to account for resources and expenditures related to auxiliary activities and complementary services of all the offices and programs that use state funds and federal service agreements for its operation.

Federal Funds - This fund is used to account for specific revenue sources that are legally restricted to cover disbursements for specific purposes in accordance with the federal regulations. The resources and expenditures accounted for in this fund include the proceeds received from the USA Department of Defense to support the operation and maintenance of the National Guard facilities.

In addition, this fund accounts for the Starbase and Challenge youth programs.

Other Governmental Funds - This fund is used to account for resources or funds that are deposited for specific purposes with applicable laws. They may come from service fees, donations, and private entities, other collections from governmental entities, and authorizations by the Legislative of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, which are designed to attain specific purposes. The expenditures charged to these accounts are authorized by legislation previously approved.

Basis of Accounting

The PRNG follows a receipts and disbursements method of accounting to account for all funds administered under this method, cash or funds transfer-in are recognized as revenues when received, and expenditures are recognized when funds are disbursed or transferred-out. Therefore, the Statement of Receipts and Disbursements is not intended to present the PRNG's results of operations in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America.

Budgetary Accounting

Formal budgetary accounting is employed as a management control tool for all funds of the PRNG. Annual operating budgets are adopted each fiscal year through passage of an annual budget, which is approved by the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and amended, if is required, throughout the year. Budgetary control procedures required the obligation of funds before purchase orders can be placed; it means that applicable appropriations must be reserved before purchase orders or contracts can be entered into. Obligated appropriations at year end carryover to the next fiscal year and are not reported as part of the next fiscal year's budget. For budgetary purposes, encumbrances accounting is used. The encumbrances (that is, purchase order and contracts) are considered expenditures when paid.

Excess (deficiency) statement line

The excess (deficiency) of receipts over (under) disbursement statement line represents a summation of the combined receipts and disbursements. Consequently, amounts shown in this line is not comparable to an excess or deficiency over funds assigned and do not represent a deficit of the PRNG.

1. ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Restrictions of Cash Balances

Restrictions of cash balance represent portions of cash balances that are legally segregated for a specific future use or are not appropriable for disbursements. The PRNG has the following restrictions of cash balances:

Encumbrances - Represent future expenditures under purchase orders, contracts, and other commitments. These committed amounts generally will become liabilities in future periods as the goods or services are received.

Federal Cooperative Agreement - Represent monies to finance federal programs for operations and maintenance of military facilities, and youth programs.

Other purposes - Represent future cash disbursements under purchase orders and commitments. These committed amounts represent a restriction of appropriations and generally will become cash disbursements in future periods as the goods or services are received.

2. PENSION PLAN BENEFITS

General information about the pension plan.

As of June 30, 2017, regular employees of the PRNG contribute to a cost-sharing multiple employer hybrid defined benefit and defined contribution retirement plan administered by the Employee's Retirement System of the Government of Puerto Rico and its instrumentalities (ERS). ERS covers all regular full-time public employees working for the central government, the municipalities of Puerto Rico and certain public corporations not having their own retirement systems. The system provides retirement pensions, death, and disability benefits. Retirement benefits depend upon age at retirement and number of years of credited service.

The pension plan operates under Act No. 447 of May 15, 1951, as amended, Act No. 305 of September 24, 1999 (System 2000 Reform) and Act No. 3 of April 4, 2013. However, on October 30, 2016, the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (PROMESA), included the ERS as well as other retirement systems of other Government of Puerto Rico instrumentalities under the direct supervision of PROMESA. ERS assets are expected to be exhausted sometime soon after July 31, 2017, and will not receive any additional funding. Instead the Government of Puerto Rico will assume ERS's pension liability under a "PayGo" system. As provided by Treasury Department Circular Letter Num. 1300-46-17-Implementation of a PayGo Pension System, under the new system, every month, the Puerto Rico Treasury Department will bill the PRNG to cover pension payments of its retired members. The PayGo payment replaces all other pension contributions paid by the PRNG, including regular pension and those established by other special laws and by Act 32-2013, known as the Additional Uniform Contributions.

2. PENSION PLAN BENEFITS (CONTINUED)

At the same time, active employees will deposit their personal contributions, of no less than 8.5%, in a new defined benefit plan to be created. In addition, the employee will continue to pay 0.25% of his salary to $5,000 monthly, to cover a disability insurance. Employees will be able to retire with the pension benefits determined under Act 3 of 2013, plus any benefit earned under the new defined benefit plan to be created. However, the Board is currently recommending the Commonwealth to lower pension benefits in excess of $1,000 monthly.

Under the PayGo System is implemented, the PRNG pension obligation and benefits were determine as follows:

Under Act 447, retirement benefits were determined by the application of stipulated benefit ratios to the member's average compensation. Average compensation was computed based on the highest 36 months of compensation recognized by ERS. The annuity, for which a plan member was eligible, was limited to a minimum of $200 per month and a maximum of 75% of the average compensation. For active participants of the contributory defined benefit programs under Act No. 447, all retirement benefits accrued through June 30, 2013 were frozen. Thereafter, all future benefits will accrue under the hybrid pension plan established by Act No. 3. Participants will receive a pension at retirement age equivalent to what they had accrued under Act 447 up to June 30, 2013, and a supplemental annuity corresponding to contributions made after July 1, 2013.

Participants under the defined contribution plan established by Reform System 2000 receive a lifetime annuity calculated at retirement based on a factor that will incorporate the individual's life expectancy and a rate of return. New participants under the hybrid plan established by Act No. 3 will receive a lifetime annuity based on the accumulated balance of their individual accounts (employees' contributions plus a return on investment). The minimum monthly pension for current retirees is $500.

Disability benefits previously provided by Act No. 447 and Reform System 2000 were eliminated by Act No. 3 and substituted for a mandatory disability insurance policy. Beginning July 1, 2013, each employee must contribute to this insurance plan .25% of his or her monthly salary, up to a monthly maximum of $5,000. Therefore, the maximum monthly employee contribution will be $12.50 ($$5,000 \times .25\%$).

As required by Act 3 of April 4, 2013, beginning July 1, 2013, the PRNG contributes 12.275% of employee contribution with an additional 1% annually beginning on July 1, 2014 up to June 30, 2016; after July 1, 2016, an additional 1.25% annually for each of the five years. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 2017, the employer contribution rate was 15.525% and the total required annual contribution amounted to $1,412,614.

As required by Act 32 of June 25, 2013, the Additional Uniform Contribution (AUC) was established for the purpose of solving the cash flow deficit of the System. For each fiscal year, beginning on July 1, 2013, the ERS: 1) determines the portion of the AUC attributable to each participating employer based on the percentage each employer's contributions represent of the total employer contributions established for that fiscal year; and 2) sends to the director of the P.R. Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and to each public corporation and municipality whose employees were covered by this Act, a certification of the AUC owed by each employer.

3. POSTEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS

The PRNG also provided other postemployment benefits to its employees that were partially eliminated by Act 3 of 2013, and any other remaining other postemployment benefit will be eliminated with the implementation of the PayGo System, as described in Note 2.

The PRNG was required to cover annually the 3% increase in the retirement plan of its retired employees, as required by Commonwealth's laws. Also, the PRNG was required to finance costs related to the application of certain laws issued by the Commonwealth Government. Those laws granted increases in pensions and other benefits to retired employees of the PRNG such as medicine bonus, Christmas and summer bonuses and death benefits. For the year ended June 30, 2017, no cost related to these post-employment benefits were paid by the PRNG.

4. COMPENSATED ABSENCES

The vacation policy of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico that applies to the employees of the PRNG provides for the accumulation of 2.5 days per month (2 days, per month for employees hired after February 8, 2017). Vacation time accumulated is fully vested to the employees from the first day of work up to a maximum of 60 days. Also, PRNG's employees accumulate sick leave at a rate of 1.5 days per month (1 day, per month for employees hired after February 8, 2017), up to a maximum of 90 days. Upon retirement, an employee receives compensation for all accumulated unpaid leave at a current rate, if the employee has at least ten (10) years of service with the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

5. TERMINATION BENEFITS

On July 2, 2010, the Commonwealth enacted Act No. 70 to establish a program that provides benefits for early retirement or economic incentives for voluntary employment termination to eligible employees, as defined, including employees of the PRNG. Act No. 70 establishes that early retirement benefits will be provided to eligible employees that have completed between 15 to 29 years of credited service in the Retirement System and will consist of biweekly benefits ranging from 37.5% to 50% of each employee's salary, as defined. In this early retirement benefit program, the PRNG will make the employee and the employer's contributions to the Retirement System and pay the corresponding pension until the employee complies with the requirement age and 30 years of credited service.

Economic incentives were available to eligible employees who had less than 15 years of credited service, who had at least 30 years of credited service and the age for retirement, or who had the age for retirement. Economic incentives consisted of a lump-sum payment ranging from one-month to six-month salary based on employment years. For eligible employees that chose the economic incentives and had at least 30 years of credited service and the age for retirement, or had the age for retirement, the PRNG will make the employee and the employer's contributions to the Retirement System for a five-year period. Additionally, eligible employees that chose to participate in the early retirement benefit program, chose the economic incentive and had less than 15 years of credited service were eligible to receive health plan coverage for up to 12 months in a health plan selected by the management of the PRNG. During fiscal year ended June 30, 2017, payments for termination benefits made by the PRNG amounted to $181,146.

6. COMMITMENTS

The PRNG rents its facilities through operating lease agreements with the Puerto Rico Industrial Development, Puerto Rico Port Authority and the Puerto Rico Land Administration, instrumentalities of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. The agreements with the governmental instrumentalities provide for rental fees significantly below market value. Rent disbursements under such lease agreements for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2017, were approximately $36,237. As of the date of these financial statements were issued, the PRNG was negotiating various expired lease agreements, including some whose monthly payments have been withheld until the contract is renewed.

Future minimum rental payments as of June 30, 2017 are as follows:

Year Ending June 30,	Amount
2018	$ 42,016
2019	44,795
2020	48,795
2021	50,795
2022	34,397
Thereafter	126,000
	$ 346,798

7. CONTINGENCIES

Litigation - The PRNG is defendant in lawsuits arising in the normal course of operations, principally from claims for alleged violation of civil rights and discrimination in employment practices. According to the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the PRNG is fully represented by the Puerto Rico Department of Justice in defense of all legal cases against the PRNG. Any claims with negative financial impact will be paid from the General Fund of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, with no effect on the budget or resources of the PRNG.

Federal Awards - The PRNG participates in a number of federal financial assistance programs funded by the Federal Government. Expenditures financed by these programs are subject to financial and compliance audits by the appropriated grantors or their representatives. If expenditures are disallowed due to noncompliance with grant program regulations, the PRNG may be required to reimburse the grantors for such expenditures.

Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (PROMESA)

On June 30, 2016, the U.S. President signed the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (PROMESA), which grants the Commonwealth and its component units access to an orderly mechanism to restructure their debts in exchange for significant federal oversight over the Commonwealth's finances. In general, PROMESA seeks to provide Puerto Rico with fiscal and economic discipline through the creation of a Control Board, relief from creditor lawsuits through the enactment of a temporary stay on litigation, and two alternative methods to adjust unsustainable debt. To ensure fiscal and economic discipline, PROMESA creates a federally appointed oversight board (the Board) that has plenary authority over Puerto Rico's finances.

The Board's primary function is to provide fiscal oversight through the development and approval of fiscal plans and budgets, and to enforce compliance with those plans and budgets. The Board also has oversight over legislative processes because PROMESA requires the Board to review new laws and deny their enforcement if they are inconsistent with the approved fiscal plans and budgets. The Board also has authority to review contracts to ensure compliance with the fiscal plan, and to prevent the execution or enforcement of a contract, rule, executive order or regulation to the extent that it is inconsistent with the approved fiscal plan.

The enactment of PROMESA also operates as a broad-based stay on litigation, applicable to all entities, with respect to claims related Puerto Rico's financial debt, as well as on enforcement of provisions in contracts that allow for termination and the exercise of remedies based on non-payment of financial obligations, among other conditions.

In addition, PROMESA contains two mechanisms to adjust Puerto Rico's debts. The first mechanism is a streamlined process to achieve modifications of financial indebtedness with the consent of a supermajority of affected financial creditors. The second mechanism is a court-supervised debt-adjustment process, which is modeled on Chapter 9 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

The Commonwealth expects that its ability to finance future budget deficits will be severely limited even if it achieves a comprehensive debt restructuring, and, therefore, that it will be required to, among other measures, reduce the amount of resources that fund important governmental programs and services in order to balance its budget. There is no assurance, however, that budgetary balance will be achieved and, if achieved, that such budgetary balance will be based on recurring revenue or expense reductions or that the revenue or expense measures undertaken to balance the budget will be sustainable on a long term basis. Accordingly, there is no assurance that the federally appointed oversight board of PROMESA will be successful in achieving budgetary and fiscal balance through a debt restructuring or otherwise.

8. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent events were evaluated through March 30, 2018, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. No significant events that should have been recorded or disclosed in the financial statements were noted, except for the event described in the following paragraph.

As of the date these financial statements were issued the Commonwealth had recently filed an amended Fiscal Plan with PROMESA's Board. The Board, however, stated in a letter dated February 5, 2018 that certain revisions to the Fiscal Plan were required. The effects of this matter, if any, on the future operations of the PRNG is still uncertain.

NOTES TO BUDGETARY COMPARISON SCHEDULE - GENERAL FUND
YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2017

1. STEWARDSHIP, COMPLIANCE AND ACCOUNTABILITY

Budgetary Control

A budget is prepared for the General Fund and represents legislative appropriations for the general operation of the PRNG. The procedures followed for the approval and operations of the budget are defined by the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. The PRNG submits to the Office of Management and Budget of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico its budget request. Then, the Governor submits the budget of the central government of the Commonwealth to the Legislative Council in the House of Representatives and Senate. The budget is legally adopted through an Act of the Legislative Council approved by the Governor. Formal budgetary information is employed as a management control device during the year for the general fund. Actual expenditures may not legally exceed budget appropriations for each of the classifications, which are shown in the budgetary statement. In instance were budget revenues and appropriations have been revised during the year, budgets amounts presented in the financial statements represent final authorization amounts. Available appropriations and encumbrances lapse one year after end of the fiscal year. The budget is adopted in accordance with a budgetary basis of accounting which differs from USGAAP. The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico Department of Treasury and the Office of Management and Budget have the responsibility to ensure that budgetary spending control is maintained on an individual appropriation account basis. Budgetary control is exercised through the PRIFAS Accounting System. The PRNG should maintain its own accounting records, which should be periodically reconciled with PRIFAS' Integrated Financial Accounting System.

The reconciliation in the general fund of the differences between statutory budgetary/cash receipt and disbursement basis for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2017 is as follows:

Excess of cash appropriation determined in accordance with the statutory basis of accounting as presented in the Budgetary Comparison Schedule --

General Fund --budgetary basis	$	-
Add: Current year encumbrances recognized as expenditures for budget purposes		197,071
Less: Expenditures paid with prior year encumbrances recognized as disbursements under the cash basis of accounting		(222,570)
Excess of cash disbursements, determined in accordance with the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting	$	25,499

NATIONAL GUARD OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PUERTO RICO
NOTES TO SCHEDULE OF EXPENDITURES OF FEDERAL AWARDS
YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2017

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying Schedule of Expenditures of Federal Awards (the Schedule) includes the federal grant activity of the National Guard of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the PRNG) under programs of the federal government for the year ended June 30, 2017. The information in this Schedule is presented in accordance with the requirements of OMB Uniform Guidance, Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profits Organizations. Because the Schedule presents only a selected portion of the operations of the PRNG, it is not intended to and does not purport to present the financial position, changes in net position, or cash flows of the PRNG.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following is a summary of the significant accounting policies used in the preparation of the schedule:

a. Expenditures reported on the Schedule are reported on the receipts and disbursements method of accounting. It is drawn primarily from the PRNG's internal accounting records, which are the basis for the PRNG's Statement of Receipts and Disbursements. Such expenditures are recognized following the cost principles contained in the OMB Uniform Guidance, Cost Principles for States, Local, and Indian Tribal Governments, wherein certain types of expenditures are not allowable or are limited as to reimbursement.

b. The titles of federal awards included in the Schedule are presented as described in the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance.

State or local government redistributions of federal awards to the PRNG, known as "pass-through awards" should be treated by the PRNG as though they were received directly from the federal government. The Uniform Guidance requires the Schedule to include the name of the "pass-through entity" and the identifying number assigned by the "pass-through entity" for the federal awards received as a sub-recipient. Numbers identified as N/A are not applicable and numbers identified as N/AV are not available.

3. RELATIONSHIP TO THE STATEMENT

Expenditures included in the Schedule agree with the amounts included in the accompanying Statement of Receipts and Disbursements – Governmental Funds.

4. INDIRECT COST RATE

The PRNG has elected not to use the ten percent of the minimum indirect cost rate allowed under the Uniform Guidance.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS
BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

National Guard of the
Commonwealth of Puerto
Rico San Juan, Puerto Rico

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of the governmental activities, the business-type activities, the aggregate discretely presented component units, each major fund, and the aggregate remaining fund information of the National Guard of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (PRNG) for the year ended June 30, 2017, and the related notes to this financial statement, which collectively comprise the PRNG's financial statement, and have issued our report thereon dated March 30, 2018.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statement, we considered the PRNG's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statement, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of PRNG's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the PRNG's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or, significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the PRNG's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instance of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the entity's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON COMPLIANCE FOR EACH MAJOR PROGRAM AND
ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER COMPLIANCE
REQUIRED BY THE UNIFORM GUIDANCE

National Guard of the
Commonwealth of Puerto

Report on Compliance for Each Major Federal Program

We have audited the National Guard of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico's (the PRNG) compliance with the types of compliance requirements described in the OMB Compliance Supplement that could have direct and material effect on each of the PRNG's major federal programs for the year ended June 30, 2017. The PRNG's major federal programs are identified in the summary of auditors' results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

Management's Responsibility

Management is responsible for compliance with federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of its federal awards applicable to its federal programs.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on compliance for each of the PRNG's major federal programs based on our audit of the types of compliance requirements referred to above. We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Costs Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Those standards and the Uniform Guidance require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about the PRNG's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion on compliance for each major federal program. However, our audit does not provide a legal determination of the PRNG's compliance.

Opinion on Each Major Federal Programs

In our opinion, the PRNG complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major federal programs for the year ended June 30, 2017.

Report on Internal Control Over Compliance

Management of the PRNG is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above. In planning and performing our audit of compliance, we considered the PRNG's internal control over compliance with the types of requirements that could have a direct and material effect on each major federal program to determine the auditing procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing an opinion on compliance for each major federal program and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with the Uniform Guidance, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control over compliance. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the PRNG's internal control over compliance.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of the Uniform Guidance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.
